T. KOHN & BROTHER have just opened a magnificent stock of Spring and Summer goods, in the selection of which they have evinced both care and excellent taste. They offer to purchasers the advantages of a large and elegant assortment, at prices which they claim to be as low as those of the Charleston market. They deserve encouragement in their endeavor to keep a first class of goods than is usually to be found in country stores.

MY CHILD.
"I cannot make him dead!
His fair sunny head
Is ever bounding round my study chair;
Yet, when my eyes, now dim
With tears, I turn to him
The vision vanishes—he is not there!"

I walk my parlour floor,
And, through the open door,
I hear a footfall on the chamber stair;
I'm stepping toward the hall
To give the boy a call;
And then I think he is not there!

I know his face is hid
Under the coffin lid;
I know his eyes; cold is his forehead fair;
My hand that marble felt;
O'er it in prayer I knelt;
Yet my heart whispers that—he is not there!

I cannot make him dead!
When passing by the bed,
The long watch'd over with parental care,
My spirit and my eye
Seek it inquiringly,
Before the thought comes that—he is not there!

When, at the cool, gray break
Of day, from sleep I wake,
With my first breathing of the morning air
My soul goes up, with joy,
To Him who gave my boy,
Then comes the sad thought that—he is not there!

When, at the day's calm close,
Before we seek repose,
I sit with my mother, offering up our prayer,
What'er I may be saying,
I am, in spirit, praying
For our boy's spirit, though—he is not there!

Not there!—Where, then, is he?
The form I used to see
Was but the raiment that he used to wear;
The grave, that now doth press
Upon that cast-off dress,
Is but his wardrobe lock'd;—he is not there!

He lives!—In all the past
He lives; nor, to the last,
Of seeing him again will I despair;
In dreams I see him now;
And, on his angel bow,
I see it written, "Thou shalt see me there!"

Yes, we all live to God!
Farina, thy chastening rod
To help us, thine afflicted ones, to bear,
That, in the spirit, laid,
Meeting at thy right hand,
We'll be our brethren and that—thou shalt see me there!"

The Mills House, Charleston, is now one of the best-kept, most home-like, yet busiest hotels in South Carolina and is deservedly a favorite with the traveling public. We know of no establishment of the kind where one is more quickly served with what he wants, than at the Mills House. We used to think Delmonico's waiters the best in the world—always ready at the slightest motion of the finger or the quickest glance of the eye, and yet never in the way. That is the kind of waiting-on we like to have when we put on airs and travel—and that is precisely the kind we find at the Mills House.

Dr. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY is no Patent Medicine humbug, gotten up to dupe the ignorant and credulous, but is a perfect Specific for Nasal Catarrh, "Cold in the head," and kindred diseases.

A Glorious Record.—Twelve years ago a few modest lines in a New York Journal invited public attention to a new Vegetable Restorative, and solicited a trial of its merits as a remedy for indigestion, biliousness, fever and ague, debility, nervous disorders, rheumatism, and all complaints requiring invigorating and regulating treatment. In this quiet, unpretentious way, PLANTATION BITTERS was introduced to the world. It was a success from the beginning. All that was claimed for it as a tonic, a corrective, and antidote to malarious fever, was found to be strictly true. Within five years the annual sales of this article amounted to over One Million of Bottles. A few years more and the demand had swelled to five millions. The annual consumption of the Bitters has now reached the almost incredible aggregate of six millions of bottles, and for every bottle sold a copy of the illustrated Medical Annual, published by the proprietors, at a cost of $150,000, is given away.
